1 Introduction

Over Autumn 2022, a project was undertaken which explored recruitment difficulties and areas of high agency spend. In the discovery phase of the project, data was analysed on: failed recruitment attempts, areas of high agency spend, reasons for staff leaving, what others were offering in relation to salary packages. From this phase, one of the key findings was that it identified some recruitment/retention issues across parts of the Council. The job areas identified were consistent with other local authorities and centred on professional back office services such as Planning, Legal, Environmental Health and Surveyors.

2 Key Issues / Proposals

The project identified various actions that are currently either being undertaken or are included in the people strategy delivery plan. However for the purpose of this report, the project highlighted the need for the Council to revise our existing market forces policy, as it needed a stronger focus on governance and the application of market forces payments. The amendments are particularly important, as there was strong evidence to suggest that some roles across the Council would benefit from market forces payments to overcome some of their recruitment and retention issues. As it stands currently, there are no market forces payments applied to staff.

This proposed revisions in this policy has been benchmarked against good practice across the local authority sector. The main proposed changes to the policy includes a robust business case which encompasses the following 4 steps:

Step 1 – Why is the Market Forces Payment required: recruitment and retention issues such as failed recruitment, high turnover, high agency spend etc.

Step 2 – What is the correct market forces payment needed: what is the market paying, how does the Council compare.

Step 3 – Actions already taken: such as restructures, trainees/graduates, job amendment.

Step 4 – Approval route: detailing the route for approval, Assistant Director (People) and the Strategic Leadership Team.

There is a detailed toolkit included in the policy which will assist the completion of this new business case approach. The other key amendments include: how to change / reduce / terminate the market forces payment and the required time length it which each payment should be reviewed.

The revised policy will provide the Council with a more robust procedure in effectively applying market forces payments in a fair and consistent way. The policy is in Appendix 1 of this report.

3 Options and alternatives considered

The option to not make any amendments to the existing policy was dismissed given that market forces payments are now most likely to be required in some areas of the Council and a revised policy is required to apply market forces payments in a more fair and consistent way.

4 Consultation

In creating this policy the following stakeholders have been consulted: Strategic Leadership Team, HR team, Unison, Unite, Head of Financial Services and Assistant Director (Planning)

5 Financial and value for money implications:

This will depend on the application of the policy. However, £200k has been set aside to cover the possible future costs. It is anticipated that agency staff costs should reduce if we are able to directly appoint more permanent staff members.

6 Legal Implications

The Market Forces Policy has been revised to ensure consistency of application to mitigate against any future equal pay claims.

7 Risk implications:

The revised policy has been designed to reduce the risks of market forces payments being applied inconsistently. The policy now has a robust justification stage via a business case and additional stages of approval.

8 Equalities, Community Impact and Human Rights:

Community Impact Assessment has been carried out and is found in appendix 2. There are no negative impacts have been identified from the market forces policy. It is aimed to provide a recruitment and retention tool to enable the Council to increase direct recruitment of candidates and also retain experienced/skilled staff in roles that are identified in the industry as being hard to fill. This new policy will provide a robust procedure in effectively applying market forces payments

Human Rights – There are no Human Rights Implications arising from this report.

9 Sustainability implications (including climate change, health and wellbeing, community safety)

There are no sustainability implications identified.

10 Council infrastructure (including Health and Safety, HR/OD, assets and other resources)

There is a broader role for human resources to undertake within this revised policy, namely the first approval stage of the business case and ensuring the application of the policy is adhered to.

11 Conclusion

In conclusion, given that it has been identified that market forces payments in some areas may assist with recruitment and retention issues. It is considered prudent to have a revised Market Forces Policy that will provide a robust procedure in effectively applying market forces payments.
