1. GENERAL PRINCIPLES FOR FEE SETTING

- 1.1. Dacorum Borough Council has statutory responsibility for the administration and enforcement of a wide range of licences, registrations and permits. Many of these schemes allow the Council to charge a fee, payable by an applicant for a licence, in order to cover the costs (or a proportion thereof) of the administration of those licence types. In some cases, costs are also permitted to cover other aspects of providing the regulatory scheme, such as enforcement.
- 1.2. The basis in setting such fees is generally to ensure full cost recovery, or as close to it as possible. Numerous legal cases over the years have confirmed that licensing fees may not be used to generate a profit for councils, and that fees should be reviewed regularly to ensure that neither a significant surplus nor deficit is created. Surpluses or deficits may be carried forward to future years to be redistributed or recouped, as applicable.
- 1.3. Many licensing schemes fall within the definition of 'services', and are therefore subject to the EU Services Directive, incorporated in to UK law as the Provision of Services Regulations 2009. For such schemes, fees and charges must "be reasonable and proportionate to the cost of the procedures and formalities under the scheme and must not exceed the cost of those procedures and formalities". This principle was affirmed by the UK Supreme Court in R. \(on the application of Hemming \(t/a Simply Pleasure Ltd\)\) v Westminster City Council.
- 1.4. In the above case, the Supreme Court referred one issue, on the legality of a demand for upfront payment relating to the ongoing enforcement and compliance of licensing and regulatory schemes, to the European Court of Justice for consideration. The ECJ issued its judgement in November 2016, stating that the law precludes any requirement for payment at the time of submitting an application, of part of a fee which relates to the ongoing management and enforcement of the authorisation scheme concerned, even if that part is refundable if that application is subsequently refused. As a result of this, and earlier decisions in the Hemming case, fees for licence types which fall within the scope of the Services Directive are now set in a two-stage structure:
  - an initial application fee payable at the time of application, representing the authority's costs in considering and determining the application;
  - a subsequent licence fee payable upon the grant of the application but prior to the issue of the licence, covering the costs of ongoing enforcement and compliance checks of the authorisation scheme, and any other costs which the authority is permitted to recover through its licence fees.
- 1.5. The key exclusions from the above provisions relate to gambling and taxi licences, as those categories of services are excluded from the Directive and the 2009 Regulations. Fees in connection with taxi applications are defined in the subject legislation as licence fees, as they are payable for the grant of a licence, not for an application (ancillary charges, e.g. DBS checks, are payable at the time, however). Gambling fees are treated as application fees, as the legislation makes no provision for refund in the event of an application being unsuccessful. Fees under the Licensing Act 2003 for alcohol/entertainment licences, which are set nationally within legislation, are also treated as application fees as the legislation is again silent on the subject of refunds.

- 1.6. The table at Annex A summarises the Council's powers to set its fees in respect of licensing applications, and any limitations on those powers.

2. CURRENT POSITION AND PROPOSALS

- 2.1. A proposed list of service-wide fees and charges (excluding those fees set by statute or under executive arrangements) for the period from 1 April 2024 to 31 March 2025, is appended to this report as Annex C.
- 2.2. In addition to the general explanatory note at para 1.4-1.5, the following comments are made to appraise the Committee in respect of current fees, and proposals for 2024-25:
- a) For the previous 2023-24 budget round, all services were subject to a 10% uplift which was corporately agreed at senior level. In 2022-23 the fees were not reviewed due to a rapid turnaround in team managers around the review period. Prior to that existing fees had been calculated in accordance with regulations and statutory guidance (see Annex A for summary powers).
  - b) For the forthcoming year, a review of charges on all the non-statutory fees has been undertaken, factoring in time spent administering applications in line with guidance, and service overheads.

Alcohol/entertainment fees

- 2.3. These continue to be set nationally in legislation, at levels which have not changed since 2005. In November 2017, the Government responded to a House of Lords Select Committee report examining the legislation for these licences, stating that the Government had decided not to commence statutory powers allowing licensing authorities to set these fees at a local level, citing additional costs facing licensed premises as a result of business rates revaluations. Given this history, a further review of business rates valuations in April 2023, and the ongoing recovery and impact on the hospitality industry from the pandemic, together with the issues this year with inflation and the subsequent cost of living crisis, it seems likely that these fees will remain at current levels for the foreseeable future, which result in a substantial deficit against costs, with the only way to reduce this burden being to continue to look at how we can deal with such licences as efficiently and economically as possible, whilst meeting our statutory responsibilities. It is hoped that the digital transformation project currently going forward will open up further ways to do this.

Animal licence fees

- 2.4. The Council is now 5 years into this legislation, and a five year legislative review was due to start in late 2023 – the outcome of this review is not known at the time of producing this report, nor if any changes will be proposed that may require additional training or have implications for officer time. If there are changes, the financial implications will be assessed in a future budget exercise. At present, applications require quite a large amount of work in checking documents and assisting and advising applicants through the application process.
- 2.5. Applicants can be granted licences for up to three years in duration, dependent on a risk score and inspection, and officers offer practical advice to applicants where possible to enable them to achieve the higher standards if there is scope to do so, and obtain licences of two to three years where possible.

- 2.6. A slight change has been factored in to Animal boarding franchise applications and renewals due to the lack of requirement to inspect the franchisee's premises which is in line with statutory DEFRA guidance relating to franchises. Therefore, the costs for inspections have been removed from the application fee in this case.
- 2.7. Dangerous wild animal licences (currently 1 in force) and zoo licences (0 in force) remain separate from the new licences, due to their specialist nature.

Gambling Act fees

- 2.8. Fees for premises licence are capped in fees regulations, and fees for all permits, lottery applications and annual fees are set nationally within the legislation, so cannot be adjusted.

Pavement licence fees

- 2.9. These are currently set nationally in legislation, at the highest level permitted, with current arrangements in place nationally until 30th September 2024. However, once the Levelling up and Regeneration Bill has been enacted, a new set of arrangements and a different fee structure – also set nationally – will be brought in. These changes will be presented to a future meeting of the Licensing Committee ahead of 30th September when the current arrangements come to an end.

Caravan Site Licences

- 2.10. Caravan site licensing fees can only be set by review of the Council's Mobile Homes Fees Policy. The present fees were presented to Licensing on 12 September 2023, and no subsequent changes to the policy or those fees have taken place during this budget round. Therefore, approval is sought for the Policy and fees for the 2024-25 financial year at this meeting, and the policy is set out at Annex D.

3. GENERAL COMMENTS

- 3.1. As in previous years, no prior consultation has been carried out on these proposed fees, save for assistance with calculations by the service accountant. As licensing authorities are legally obliged to set fees on a cost recovery basis, costs are the only factor they should consider. Comparisons with fees charged by other authorities, comparisons with inflation rates or other indices (including regulated taxi fares) or responses generally opposing an increase as it will raise costs for businesses should carry little weight. In previous years almost all of the responses received to consultations have fallen under these descriptions, as it is very difficult for third parties to make any other comment on the costs incurred by the licensing authority.
- 3.2. For fees covered by a public notice requirement, an opportunity will be available to make representations on the proposed fees prior to their going live, following the publication of a public notice in a local newspaper. The authority must consider any representations received prior to deciding whether to go ahead with the proposed fee levels.

4. RECOMMENDATIONS

- 4.1. In pursuance of the fee-setting powers conferred upon the Council as specified in Annex A of this report, that the Licensing, Health & Safety and Enforcement

Committee set as the fees and charges payable by applicants in connection with applications and other processes for licences, registrations and permits the fees and charges as set out in Annex C and the Mobile Homes Fees Policy set out in Annex D, for the period from 1st April 2024 to 31st March 2025; and

- 4.2. That authority to consider any objections arising from statutory notices pertaining to these fees be delegated to the Assistant Director (Legal and Democratic Services) in consultation with the Chairman of the Licensing, Health & Safety and Enforcement Committee.
