

Policy Advice Note

Version 1: May 2017

This note lists all of the relevant policy documents for Dacorum and considers them in relation to the following two points:

- A. Consistency of saved policies with the National Planning Policy Framework (NPPF), and
- B. The definition of 'Strategic policies' for the purposes of Neighbourhood Planning.

Purpose of this assessment

Sections A and B below detail the full purposes of this assessment.

1 Background to this assessment

Policy Context and the New Local Plan

- 1.1 Dacorum Borough Council has the following adopted or emerging policy documents:
- Saved Policies from Dacorum Borough Local Plan, 1991 – 2011 (adopted April 2004)
 - Core Strategy, 2006 – 2031 (adopted September 2013)
 - Site Allocations DPD, 2006 – 2031 (adopted July 2017)
 - Emerging New Single Local Plan
- 1.2 The Council has committed to an early partial review (EPR) of its Core Strategy which will be delivered through the New Single Local Plan. Our intention is for this new plan to be in place during 2019, as set out in the Local Development Scheme. The Local Development Scheme¹ will be monitored by the Authority Monitoring Report² and any updates will be published as part of this annual review.

Relevance of New Local Plan to Neighbourhood Planning

- 1.3 While ‘general conformity’ to an emerging local plan is not required as a Neighbourhood Plan is being produced (as it is not a legal requirement set out in the Act³), the emerging strategic policies can provide some additional clarity (or provide areas for further focus) to a neighbourhood plan making process. This is due to the ‘clarity’ and ‘strategy/direction’ which district level policy provides (for example, the quantum, type or preferred locations for development) and emerging evidence base to support such a strategy.
- 1.4 Where neighbourhood planning is undertaken before an up-to-date local plan is in place, collaboration between the parish council or neighbourhood forum and the Borough Council is seen as critical. This should include sharing evidence and information by both parties and ensuring the neighbourhood plan accords with any relevant or up-to-date evidence of strategic needs⁴. In order to future-proof the plan, those preparing a neighbourhood plan should ensure, through close dialogue with the Borough Council, that the plan is appropriately ‘in line’ with up-to-date evidence of any strategic needs identified for the area and takes account of the strategic priorities of the emerging local plan. Background technical work has already commenced by the Council. Once completed, all technical work will be published on our Council’s website⁵.

Annual Review

- 1.5 This assessment will be kept under review and updated, as necessary, through the Authority Monitoring Report (AMR) process. Such updates may seek to reflect any changes in interpretation arising from subsequent policy guidance or decisions made by Planning Inspectors or in the courts.

⁴ Set out as ‘General Conformity’ within the PPG: Paragraph: 074 Reference ID: 41-074-20140306 Revision date: 06 03 2014

Limitations of this assessment and need for Case Officer Judgement

- 1.6 Please note that the following assessment is an Officer judgment based on current, available information. This document does not seek to consider any emerging Government policy approaches that have yet to be applied to the NPPF (or within the Planning Practice Guidance (PPG)).
- 1.7 This assessment considers the overall thrust and principles of individual policies rather than providing an assessment of each sentence or word within the policy. To this end, there is a need for an individual assessment to be carried out by Development Management Officers to consider NPPF compliance where the detail of policies is under consideration.
- 1.8 If there are queries over the latest, current policy position, please ask a member of the Strategic Planning Team.

2. The approach taken and justification for conclusions reached in this assessment

A. Local plan policies consistency with the NPPF and PPG: Approach and Relevance to Planning Application decisions:

- 2.1 The NPPF was introduced in March 2012 after the adoption of some of the borough's saved development plan policies. The NPPF stated that for 12 months from the date of its publication that decision-takers may continue to give full weight to relevant policies adopted since 2004 even if there is a limited degree of conflict with this Framework. This principle applies to the Dacorum Borough Local Plan, as it was adopted 21st April 2004, whereas the Core Strategy and Site Allocations DPD have been adopted since 2012 and so were drafted to conform to the NPPF.
- 2.2 Para 215 of NPPF goes on to say that "in other cases and following this 12 month period, due weight should be given to relevant policies in existing plans according to their degree of consistency with this framework (the closer the policies in the plan to the Framework the greater the weight that may be given.)"
- 2.3 For the purposes of decision-taking, Dacorum's saved Local Plan policies (adopted 21st April 2004) should not be considered out-of-date simply because they were adopted prior to the publication of the NPPF. However, the Council acknowledges that the weight they can be accorded needs to be determined on a policy-by-policy basis, with regard also being given to relevant local circumstances and the content of the NPPF. The NPPF also states that from March 2013, due weight should be given to saved policies in existing plans according to their degree of consistency with the NPPF. The more consistent the policies in the plan are to the policies in the Framework, the greater the weight they may be given. Where a strategic policy no longer remains consistent, it should no longer be given weight.
- 2.4 The Planning and Compulsory Purchase Act (2004) requires that planning applications are determined in accordance with the development plan, unless material considerations indicate otherwise. The NPPF and PPG are also material considerations in planning decisions which local planning authorities should take into account as they provide national planning guidance on a wide range of planning issues.
- 2.5 This advice note will assist Development Management, developers, Development Control Committee and those drawing up Neighbourhood Plans to apply saved policies appropriately and consistently alongside the Framework and other Borough policies.

Categorisation of saved policies

2.6 The 'saved' local plan policies have been categorised into the following three categories:

Categorisation	Colour coding
Consistent with or not contrary to the Framework Policies in this category can continue to be given full weight for development management decision-taking, alongside the Framework. These are either: (a) broadly consistent with the spirit of the NPPF or (b) not explicitly covered in the NPPF, so cannot be deemed to be contrary to these national principles.
Partly consistent with the Framework A number of 'saved' Local Plan policies contain a significant level of detail. Parts of these policies are consistent with the Framework, whilst certain parts are not. The weight that can be accorded to these policies needs to be determined by the specific circumstances of each individual application alongside the Framework.
Not consistent with the Framework Policies that take a different direction and view on matters to the content of the Framework. These policies should no longer be applied.

Implications of categorisation of saved policies

- 2.7 The NPPF includes measures which allow existing and emerging plans to be materially considerations alongside the NPPF under certain circumstances. Therefore, in line with NPPF paragraph 215, when making decisions on planning applications (either by the Development Control Committee or by Officers under delegated powers), the 2004 Local Plan policies will continue to be used by Dacorum Borough Council where they are consistent with the NPPF (including those which are deemed to be consistent in part). Although as stated above, each case will need to be considered on its individual merits.
- 2.8 Where the 2004 Local Plan policies are saved, they will be considered in the context of more up-to-date Core Strategy/Site Allocations policies and the NPPF, where appropriate.
- 2.9 In cases where the policies in the 2004 Local Plan are not consistent with the NPPF, this does not leave a policy vacuum as the policies in the NPPF (or the more recent DPDs) will take precedence. All adopted Core Strategy and Site Allocation DPD policies are deemed broadly consistent / compliant with the NPPF as they have been examined/ assessed by an independent Inspector (and found 'sound').
- 2.10 It should be noted that the 2004 Dacorum Borough Local Plan remains an important document, sitting alongside other policy documents and the NPPF, in determining planning applications in Dacorum.

- 2.11 For the issues which relate to each policy, please see the individual assessment of Dacorum's Local Plan policies below. This is based on the policy as a whole and considers the key principles or general thrust of the policy. It is for Case Officers to determine whether specific parts of the policy are relevant to a planning application and if the appropriate parts of the policy are consistent with the national Framework at that time. Officers also need to take into account the latest national and local policy position when applying the conclusions of this document to site specific proposals.

Conclusions

- 2.12 To a significant extent the saved policies of the Dacorum Borough Local Plan (2004) are considered to be consistent with the Framework and can continue to be relied upon for development management decision-making.

B. Strategic policies contained in the development plan: their relevance for emerging Neighbourhood Plan policies

- 2.13 A draft neighbourhood development plan must be in general conformity with the strategic policies contained in the development plan for the area of Dacorum Borough.
- 2.14 The development plan for the Borough currently comprises:
- 1) Saved Policies from Dacorum Borough Local Plan, 1991 – 2011 (adopted April 2004)
 - 2) Core Strategy, 2006 – 2031 (adopted September 2013)
 - 3) Site Allocations DPD (adopted July 2017)
 - 4) the minerals and waste policies adopted by Hertfordshire County Council⁶
- 2.15 Please note that the other relevant supplementary planning guidance (SPG) and supplementary planning documents (SPD) for Dacorum Borough have not been considered for their compliance with the NPPF/PPG.
- 2.16 The Council has assessed the adopted policies in documents 1 to 3 above to identify those which are strategic in nature, as required by paragraph 184 of the NPPF.
- 2.17 In terms of point 4, Hertfordshire County Council is responsible for ensuring the minerals and waste policies are consistent with the NPPF⁷.
- 2.18 The PPG⁸ suggests that to reach a view on whether a policy is a strategic policy the following points should be considered by Local Planning Authorities:
- whether the policy sets out an overarching direction or objective.
 - whether the policy seeks to shape the broad characteristics of development.
 - the scale at which the policy is intended to operate.
 - whether the policy sets a framework for decisions on how competing priorities should be balanced.
 - whether the policy sets a standard or other requirement that is essential to achieving the wider vision and aspirations in the Local Plan.
 - in the case of site allocations, whether bringing the site forward is central to achieving the vision and aspirations of the Local Plan.
 - whether the Local Plan identifies the policy as being strategic.

⁶ Hertfordshire Minerals Local Plan Review 2002-2016 (27 March 2007), Mineral Consultation Areas Supplementary Planning Document (1 January 2008), Waste Core Strategy and Development Management Policies Document (5 November 2012), Waste Site Allocations Document (adopted on 15 July 2014) and Employment Land Areas of Search Supplementary Planning Document (10 November 2015)

⁷ Please check Hertfordshire County Council website for their assessment of the Local Plan policies compliance with the NPPF, PPG and National Planning Policy for Waste (NPPW).
The National Waste Management Plan and national policy statements for waste water and hazardous waste may be of relevance.

⁸ Paragraph: 076 Reference ID: 41-076-20140306 Revision date: 06 03 2014

- 2.19 Dacorum's strategic policies have therefore been defined as those policies which are important to:
- the supply of land for strategic uses to meet strategic needs such as housing, employment and transport;
 - the provision or retention of key services and facilities to help achieve sustainable development across the Borough;
 - the protection and/or enhancement of strategic environmental assets important to a Borough-wide population; and/or
 - those supporting specific policies identified in the NPPF which the Government identifies as strategically important in restricting development.
- 2.20 Any Neighbourhood Plan submitted to the Borough Council will be tested for its general conformity with the Councils 'strategic policies' (paragraphs 8(2) (e) and 5(5) (b) of Schedule 4B of the TCPA 1990 added by Section 116 of the Localism Act). The Borough Council has identified below its Local Plan policies which Neighbourhood Plan policies need to be in 'general conformity' with. Where policies have been deemed by the Council to be strategic in nature (for the reasons set out in paragraph 2.17 or 2.18 above), they have been identified by a tick (✓).
- 2.21 Further general advice on Neighbourhood Planning is available on the Council's website at:
- <http://www.dacorum.gov.uk/home/regeneration/grovehill-future-project/neighbourhood-planning>

Appendix 1 Schedule of Saved Policies from Dacorum Borough Local Plan, 1991 – 2011⁹, adopted 21 April 2004

The following table lists all 'saved' policies from the Dacorum Borough Local Plan 1991-2011 and identifies:

- If and why they are considered to be strategic in nature for the purposes of Neighbourhood Planning; and
- Their NPPF¹⁰ compliance.

Please note: some DBLP policies have already been superseded by the Core Strategy and Site Allocations DPD, while others will remain 'saved' until they are replaced by the policies in the new single Local Plan. For a full list of which Core Strategy and Site Allocations DPD policies replaced the superseded DBLP policies, please see Appendix 1 of the Site Allocations DPD¹¹.

Policy 15	Retention of Housing	✓	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The policy sets a standard or other requirement that is essential to achieving the wider vision and aspirations in the Local Plan. 	Consistent with or not contrary to NPPF Para 14, 17 (bullet 3), 47, 51, 70, 126, 187, 199 The components of this policy are broadly consistent with NPPF as it includes an objective to secure sustainable development and it also places an importance on retaining existing levels of housing stock.	The Council will generally resist the net loss of housing stock. The NPPF has no coverage regarding loss of existing housing stock, although its overall intention to significantly boost the supply of homes is clear.	New LP
Policy 18	The Size of New Dwellings	✗	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Consistent with or not contrary to NPPF Para 14, 49, 50, 55 The components of this policy are broadly consistent with NPPF as it includes an objective to secure housing development to meet the identified need in Dacorum. This policy does include references to floor space standards and targets for life-time homes which are more onerous than the NPPF guides.	Advice should be sought from the Council's Strategic Housing team who can advise on specific local housing needs. Applicants need to provide evidence to support their proposed dwelling mix on sites. While we acknowledge that these standards (or equivalent) have been absorbed into the Building Regulation process (Part M), these standards/targets are considered to be locally justified policy requirements¹⁶ and should remain to be applied, as appropriate.	New LP
Policy 19	Conversions	✗	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Consistent with or not contrary to NPPF Para 17, 51, 59 The components of this policy are broadly consistent with NPPF which aims to deliver more housing and encourage the reuse of empty buildings.	While aiming to deliver more housing and encourage the reuse of empty buildings, this policy is also balanced to give local authorities and their communities the opportunity to influence development in their area and take account of local circumstances. The policy provides more detailed local design guidance¹⁶ to that detailed in the NPPF.	New LP
Policy 21	Density of Residential Development	✓	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The policy sets out an overarching direction or objective. The policy seeks to shape the broad characteristics of development. The scale at which the policy is intended to operate. The policy sets a standard or other requirement that is essential to achieving the wider vision and aspirations in the Local Plan. 	Consistent with or not contrary to NPPF Para 14, 47, 59 The components of this policy are broadly consistent with NPPF which states that LPAs should set their own approach to housing density to reflect local circumstances¹⁶. Residential character area SPG¹⁷ is saved and advice regarding densities should be considered alongside the Urban Design Zones (see diagrams within the Place Strategies).	It should be noted that the Residential Character Area SPG tends to reflect on what is 'on the ground' rather than provide a policy drive towards what the strategy / vision aspires to be delivered in the future. In this regard, the SPG could be read as encouraging less than 30dph to be delivered on sites which would not necessarily encourage the best use of (brownfield) land principles stated within the NPPF. Low density development may however be justifiable, depending on local context.	New LP

¹⁶ Para 10 of the NPPF states: "Plans and decisions need to take local circumstances into account, so that they respond to the different opportunities for achieving sustainable development in different areas" and para 15 of the NPPF which states "all plans should be based upon and reflect the presumption in favour of sustainable development, with clear policies that will guide how the presumption should be applied locally."

¹⁷ Although we note that this SPG is somewhat out-of-date in its approach to residential density.

Policy 22	Extensions to Dwellings in the Green Belt and the Rural Area	x	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Partly consistent with NPPF Para 89, 90 The components of this policy are partly consistent with NPPF in that the policy applies additional locally specific criteria¹⁶ which the LPA must consider for extensions to dwellings than that advised in the NPPF. Para 89 of the NPPF allows for “the extension or alteration of a building, provided that it does not result in disproportionate additions over and above the size of the original building.” Policy 21 sets out how DBC will interpret the issue of ‘proportionality’. In other words, it adds local detail¹⁶ to that included in the NPPF. However we note that saved policy 22 follows previous requirements from PPG2 for extensions to be ‘small scale’. Proportionality may be considered differently in the NPPF context and a judgement will need to be made. Policy needs to be considered in the context of changes to PD rights which allow for quite significant extensions to properties in the Green Belt/Rural Area.	We acknowledge that there are various application decisions which extend buildings above the prescribed % in this policy. Please note: that the ‘floor area %’ is a local definition¹⁶ of what we mean by ‘disproportionate’. However, this is usually on the basis of other policy considerations set out in the policy having been met. Reference to controlling increased floor area outside of the Green Belt (i.e. in the rural area) is not entirely consistent with the NPPF, but this has been determined to provide general guidance to assist with determining planning applications. The policy has reference to ‘limited in size’ whereas the NPPF talks about ‘disproportionate’ extensions. The term ‘disproportionate’ provides consideration of a variety of matters including: scale, bulk, mass, floor area and volume. In this regard the 130% figure (included in criterion (i), bullet point 1) is deemed to not be consistent with the NPPF and should not be applied when determining planning applications.	New LP
Policy 23	Replacement Dwellings in the Green Belt and the Rural Area	x	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Partly consistent with NPPF Para 89, 90 The components of this policy are partly consistent with NPPF. Para 89 of the NPPF allows for “the replacement of a building, provided the new building is the same use and not materially larger”. The definition of ‘original dwelling’ provided in the supporting text to Policy 23 does not accord with that provided in the NPPF. In this instance, the starting point should be to consider the dwelling currently on the site rather than the position set out in the DBLP (of 1948/ or first built after that date). Please note: the policy includes our local definition of what is meant by ‘not materially larger’.	The policy includes no references to the Green Belt tests detailed in the NPPF, especially in terms of the ‘same proposed land use’ & ‘not materially larger’. It is noted that the test in Policy 23 of development ‘not being larger’ is in most cases likely to result in a different outcome to the consideration of development being ‘not materially larger’. This policy allows for replacement of dwellings including ones destroyed. It is noted that the destruction of a building results in the loss of a lawful use (see case called Iddenden and Others v Secretary of State for the Environment and Another [1972] 1 W.L.R. 1433). Use of this part of the policy should be limited.	New LP

Policy 24	Agricultural and Forestry Workers' Dwellings	✘	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Partly consistent with NPPF Para 28, 55 The components of this policy are partly consistent with NPPF. It is noted that para 89 of the NPPF allows for new buildings proposed for "agricultural and forestry uses" as an exception to the normal application of Green Belt policies. Dwellings (C3) are not covered by the exemptions, so very special circumstances are required.	It is acknowledged that the Policy 24 requires additional criteria to be demonstrated than that included within the NPPF. In this instance, these points detailed within the policy are deemed to form part of the justification for Very Special Circumstances. Changes to PD rights will be relevant to take into account. Please note: para 55 of NPPF is relevant to the Rural Area within Dacorum, but not the Green Belt.	New LP
Policy 26	Residential Caravans	✘	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Partly consistent with NPPF Para 17, 23 (bullets 6 and 9), 48, 51, 53 The NPPF provides very limited coverage on caravans and other temporary homes. However, Policy 26 makes clear that these are to be treated as though they were for residential buildings, so the general approach would appear to accord with the NPPF.	We note that there are cross-references in this policy to Policies 24 and 95 (so consideration should be given to their NPPF compliance assessments). Policy 95 places emphasis on small-scale built development allowed in the Green Belt which is not inconsistent with the NPPF (i.e. in particular with NPPF paras. 89 and 90). There are also references to Policy 27 which was not saved under the 2004 Act transitional arrangements.	New LP
Policy 28	Residential Moorings	✘	Locally specific policy which is not central to the vision or objectives.	Partly consistent with NPPF Para 17, 39, 47, 69, 113, 118, 122, 126 The components of this policy are not contrary to the NPPF as national guidance provides very limited coverage specifically on residential moorings. Although para 1 in Policy 28 appears to be only partly consistent with the NPPF, as the policy allows for residential uses at the edge of urban areas and in the open countryside in certain circumstances, including in the Green Belt. This is not entirely consistent with NPPF paras. 89 and 90.	Paragraph 26.11 of the Countryside Strategy is relevant. It states that ".....The Grand Union Canal is an important historic, environmental and leisure asset. A number of boating facilities are available in the area. Additional mooring basins will be directed away from open countryside."	New LP

Although it is noted that some of the GEAs in the table of GEAs (either partly or wholly) are no longer expected to be used for employment purposes.	The GEAs are defined on the Local Plan Proposals Map (as amended). Further changes to the areas or the appropriate uses within them will be considered through the new Local Plan and/or East Hemel Hempstead Area Action Plan. The continued inclusion of such GEAs in Policy 31 is not well aligned to NPPF para. 22. The Site Allocations DPD proposes various changes to the GEAs, whilst other changes at NE Hemel Hempstead (not covered by the Site Allocations) are also needed.	New LP
